AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS NEW JERSEY SECTION
ARNOLD G. TARANTO, PE AND JEAN G. HANSEN, PE
STUDENT CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships are available for award to members of American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) student chapters located in the State of New Jersey and members of out of State ASCE student chapters having their legal home address in the State of New Jersey. The Board of Directors of the ASCE New Jersey Section established these awards in 1987.

I. ELIGIBILITY:

- A) Any third-year undergraduate of a four year BSCE program, or any fourth-year undergraduate of a five year BSCE program, who will receive their baccalaureate degree within the calendar year following the date of application, and who is a member of an ASCE student chapter may apply for these scholarships without restriction as to academic class standing or marital status, subject to the requirement that the applicant must be a member in good standing at the time of application and award.

- B) The scholarships shall be awarded only to a student who will utilize the funds to continue with undergraduate education in civil engineering.

- C) Previous winners of these scholarships are not eligible for this award.

- D) No more than three (3) students from any one student chapter may apply for the scholarship awards each year.

II. APPLICATION: (see enclosed copy)

Original applications must be submitted to and emailed by the ASCE student chapter faculty advisor. The applications must include:

- 1) Proof of student chapter membership;

- 2) A statement by the applicant of the reasons believed to justify the award;

- 3) The applicant's plans for continuing his/her education and a statement outlining how the applicant will finance his/her education if an award is granted;

- 4) Records of academic performance and standing (at a minimum, a copy of the applicant's transcript – may be an unofficial copy);

- 5) Statement of appraisal of the applicant in terms of potential for growth, character, leadership capacity and interests from the student chapter faculty advisor and at least two other members of the faculty.

The completed application must be emailed by the faculty advisor to the ASCE NJ Section Scholarship Committee no later than March 31, 2024 to: scholarships@ascenewjerseysection.org

III. SELECTION:

- A) Up to two applicants may be selected each year to receive an award from the ASCE New Jersey Section.

- B) Selection will be made by the Scholarship Committee of the ASCE New Jersey Section. No faculty or ASCE New Jersey practitioner advisor shall serve on this committee.

- C) The ASCE Central Jersey Branch may also offer a $2,500 scholarship. Students submitting the Arnold G. Taranto, PE and Jean G. Hansen, PE scholarship application will automatically receive consideration for the Central Jersey Branch scholarship.

IV. AWARDS:

- A) The successful applicant(s) will be notified of their selection by the chairperson of the ASCE NJ Section Scholarship Committee on or about April 21st following submittal of the application.

- B) The sum of each scholarship to be awarded for the 2024-2025 academic year will be a minimum of $2,500.00.

- C) All awardees must provide a social security number if requested.

- D) The scholarship award winners will be invited to the Annual Awards dinner of the ASCE New Jersey Section typically held the first or second Thursday evening in May for recognition of the award.

- E) The award shall be deposited to the awardee's account with the business office of the institution attended by the applicant, or other agency (office) so designated by the awardee and approved by the ASCE New Jersey Section, before the end of the fall semester of the awardee's senior/final baccalaureate year. Withdrawals from such other agency accounts may be made only with concurrence of the student chapter faculty advisor who shall assure the ASCE New Jersey Section that withdrawals from any accounts established outside the award winner's university account are utilized for educational expenses only.
